We took a couple stock market class and mentorship, me and my fiancée. Thank you so much moneyblessed institute for teaching us stock market, Truly you are the best your teaching style was so good and you tell us each concept is so easy and simple language that we understand every concept so easily, the way you teach every concept like candlestick patterns, technical analysis, F&O and many more topics we understand so easily so thank you so much had a great experience with you.

Siddharth Kuldeep

Hey Everyone i was trading in Market from 2020 and was making losses for years. With the reference of a friend i took mentorship courses of money blessed. That's the point where my life changed. They told me the realities of the stock market and how to deal with them. I loved how they understood me and helped me improve my mindset. Their trading set ups are easy to learn and execute. I am confident now that i can make success out of this profession. All thanks to the team of money blessed. Highly recommend to every trader to connect with them to make its trading journey beautiful and Better.

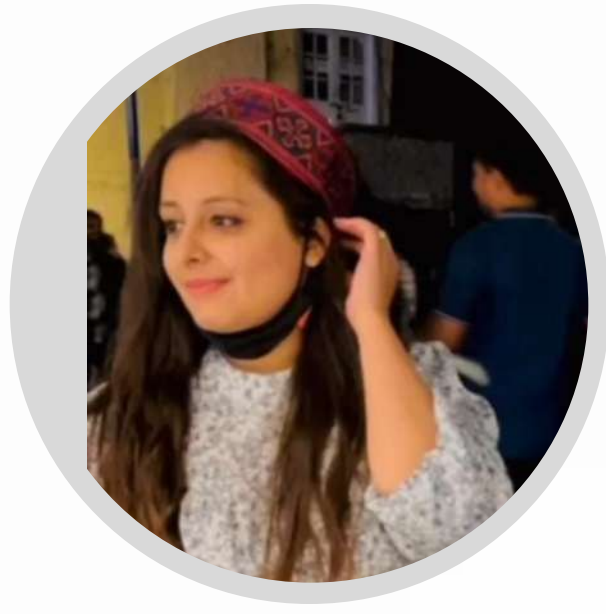

Sonal Koshti

I had a great life changing experience with moneyblessed institute. I took online one to one classes of advance technical analysis course and it has changed my life. The way I see charts and understands stocks price action has improved incredibly. They teach tried and back tested concepts, happy to see it all works and because of this course and because of proper teaching by ma'am I have started earning good money. The course is worth thousand times more than they charge. It was a terrific experience. Everyone must do it to make money from money.

Himanshu Sharma

Lokesh sir gave us very practical knowledge. The content of the mentorship program covers all aspects of trading not just the technical part. I am absolutely satisfied with the mentorship and will recommend this to everyone who is eager to learn trading.

Palak Kalra

This technical analysis course provides a solid foundation for understanding the fundamentals of charting and pattern recognition in the stock market. The mentor (Lokesh sir) effectively explains key concepts like support and resistance levels, trends, candlestick patterns, and indicators. Also the course uses straightforward language and visuals to make complex concepts accessible. Sir also demonstrates how to apply technical analysis tools to real-world trading scenarios. This course is a valuable starting point for beginners seeking to learn the fundamentals of technical analysis. Looking forward to start futures and options.

Dev

I believe that i made the best decision by choosing moneyblessed institute. They guided me in every way they could. I am most thankful to the Institution for providing me the opportunity to better myself through education, communication, co-ordination. I completed my first course beginners of stock market from here.. I m grateful to the faculty for their help and support throughout my journey during my course, specially thanks to my mentor:- HIMANSHI MAM They taught everything in a very simple way. If you want to enhance your knowledge in stock market. Then i highly suggest you to join moneyblessed institute!

Shobit Kumar

I did three courses from this institute. Beginner of stock market, technical analysis and options course. My overall experience was fantastic. They mentored me, guided me, helped me get better in my trading psychology and made me learn how to make money from money with the help of stock market trading and investing. I recommend to all who wants to choose stock market as a career or want to make passive income this money blessed is the best in tricity.

Bhanu

I was looking for other sources of income. While i met with moneyblessed mentors. They help me develop trading skills, Which further help me making decent income from stock markets. Under their guidance i never made heavy losses which was my biggest fear at first place. If you are thinking about starting trading this institute is highly recommended. Have a consultation with them and they will give you all clarity like they provided me.

Kashish

I recently learnt trading skills from Moneyblessed institute. I opted for online classes and had great fun while learning stocks. The mentors were too good and understanding. Courses are completely practical and designed to meet any beginners need. Highly recommended to Everyone who wants to learn this skill.

Thank You
